

We're Rolling Out The Green Carpet!

Take a personal tour with Jeff McManus, whose expertise in landscaping has gained The University of Mississippi accolades of being named "The Most Beautiful Campus" by a number of national publications as well in Newsweek 2011 and just recently in USA Today's Readers Choice competition.

During this 2 day camp each participant will receive a book written by Jeff McManus at the Opening Dinner/Book Signing. Among activities one will be able to immerse themselves on a tour of the beautiful Ole Miss Campus, learn some great practices from industry leaders and attend educational seminars.

To date we're excited to announce part of our line-up of speakers along with McManus, Katherine Sharp with Farmstead Florals, she grows fresh flowers for local and regional markets; Greg Pinion, Superintendent of Buildings and Grounds for the City of Oxford along with Dr. Ed Croom, retired botanist from the University of Mississippi and author of "The Land of Rowan Oak, An Exploration of Faulkner's Natural Word."

To top it off a tour will also take place on route the famous Double Decker Bus to the beautifully landscaped home of Bo and Jodie Marsalis which is maintained by McManus as well as a tour of the City of Oxford.
